

Eastsound Line Crew Repairs Submarine Cable in Cascade Lake (5-16-11)

The Eastsound Line Crew engineered a creative strategy to repair a faulty cable in Cascade Lake. They used the digger truck to help pull the cable up near the shore, put cable guides on a floating dock section, and then towed the dock along the cable lay pulling the cable up to examine it and then making the repairs.

